

Restaurants

Jersey has many restaurants and cafes, catering for a variety of tastes and budgets. Its beachside cafes and cantina style restaurants are a highlight, whether eating out for breakfast/brunch, grabbing a snack or enjoying a more substantial meal out.

I hesitate to recommend specific restaurants (though see final paragraph) since enjoying a meal out is such a personal experience. However, the list below offers a diverse selection to get you started! Bear in mind there are many other wonderful and highly rated establishments.

You will need to make a reservation at most restaurants.

Local restaurants:

Four local wonderful beachside cantinas/restaurants. All have indoor seating but come into their own if you can sit outside.

El Tico: <https://elticojersey.com/> 5 mins drive. St Ouen's Bay

Le Braye: <https://www.lebraye.com/> 7 mins drive. St Ouen's Bay

Colleen's <https://www.facebook.com/colleenscafe/> 5 mins drive, Greve de Lecq Bay

Plemont Beach Café <https://www.facebook.com/plemontbeachcafejersey/> 5 mins drive, Plemont Bay

Simple restaurants, nearby, in great locations:

Staks, La Pulente <https://staks.je/> 10 mins drive, La Pulente, south end of St Ouen's Bay.

Corbiere Phare <http://corbierephare.com/> Stunning views on south west corner of island. 15 mins drive.

Off the Rails <https://offtherailsjersey.com/> A pizza and tapas café on the railway track walk in St Brelade. 15 minute drive.

Salty Dog <https://www.saltydogbistro.com/> Beside St Aubins Harbour.

St Aubin's Harbour is a lovely spot with several restaurants and bars lining the harbour, including:

Sorrento's <https://www.sorrento.je/> Italian cuisine on the harbour's edge

The Old Courthouse <https://www.liberationgroup.com/the-old-court-house-inn/>

The Boathouse <https://randalls-jersey.co.uk/the-boat-house/> Bar food downstairs. A great terrace to enjoy an early evening drink. Upstairs is a classic restaurant, the Anchor Club (Be certain which one you have booked!)

The Anchor Club <https://randalls-jersey.co.uk/the-anchor-club/> Above The Boathouse.

Sugar Banana Thai Restaurant <https://www.facebook.com/sugarbananathaikitchen>

Noya Shapla <https://www.noyashapla.je/> Authentic Indian and Bangladeshi cuisine.

And several others!!

Portelet Bay Café <https://www.facebook.com/jerseywoodpizza> 20 minute drive and a significant walk down (then up on return!) But arguably one of the most stunning locations especially on high tide on a summers evening.

Other Restaurants:

The Oyster Box <https://oysterbox.co.uk/> St Brelade's Bay, 20 minute drive.

Green Island Restaurant: <https://www.greenisland.je/> Green Island Beach. 30 minute drive, far side of St Helier.

The Moorings Hotel <https://www.themooringshotel.com/> Gorey, 30-40 minute drive, on the east coast.

The Bass and Lobster <https://www.bassandlobster.com/main> Gorey, 30-40 minutes drive on the east coast.

Sangria Tapas Bar and Restaurant <https://www.facebook.com/sangriajsy/> in the Royal Square in St Helier, a pedestrianised beautiful square besides Jersey "States of Parliament" buildings .

Roseville Bistro <https://www.rosevillebistro.co.uk/> in St Helier. A "back street" bistro, that appears unprepossessing but has good value, generous food.

Mark Jordan at the Beach <https://www.markjordanatthebeach.com/> On St Aubin's Bay.

*Sumas Restaurant <https://sumasrestaurant.com/> Gorey.

*Chateau La Chaire <https://chateau-la-chaire.co.uk/> Rozel, 30-40 minutes drive on the east coast.

*Longueville Manor <https://www.longuevillemanor.com/> St Helier

*Bohemia Restaurant <https://www.bohemiajersey.com/> St Helier

* High end, special occasion (expensive!!) restaurants.

El Tico and Le Braye are safe bets and stunning locations if you can sit outside.

St Aubin's has a great selection of restaurants located around a picturesque harbour (especially at high tide) and is only a 15-minute drive.

Plemont and Colleen's are great for b'fast/brunch and located by beautiful beaches that are accessible for swimming. (Plemont beach is completely covered at high tide). Colleen's also serves evening meals including wonderful fish and chips.

Portelet Bay Café, down on the beach is a wonderful spot. The menu is limited but good, including wood fired oven pizzas. (There is a pub/restaurant above the beach, which is ok but doesn't have the wow factor that the beach café has). It is pricey for what it is, reflecting the unique location.
