

Food Shops

There is a small Morrisons and Waitrose in St Ouen's Village, beside the Parish Hall, a 3 minute car journey. (The "Mini" Waitrose is beside St Ouen's Garage.

<https://goo.gl/maps/n3CrYz4UeB9iynMX9>

Bigger supermarkets include a Coop in St Peters:

<https://goo.gl/maps/ARiVEK6mko2i4eb7A>

and a Waitrose in St Brelade

<https://goo.gl/maps/KcqzULA6RE4ncHWS8>

Fresh local seafood can be bought directly from a local fisherman/woman from a van outside St Ouen's Parish Hall from 9am on Sunday morning:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/649296225922364/user/100063503381329/>

The following link provides other places and ways to access local seafood, including local hand dived scallops, line caught sea bass, locally caught crabs and lobster and local oysters.

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/649296225922364>

The Fish Market in town is another good place to visit.

<https://goo.gl/maps/go5TxKMXUo5jGFtg6>

and the seafood from the Fresh Fish Company, beside Victoria Pier, near the Old Harbour in St Helier, is consistently good.

<https://goo.gl/maps/WfDKxW9nzGQaZicX9>